Timing: Singular

Title: Donation to Rhayader FC

Category of Decision / Business Area Impact: finance

Executive Summary:

During the Summer 2023, a serving Dyfed Powys police officer, Inspector Gareth Earp, tragically died in a road traffic collision on the way home from work.

Inspector was the Chairperson of his local football club – Rhayader FC, and had a strong history with the club with roles as a player and coach.

With the support of his family, Rhayader FC has organised a 6-a-side football tournament to pay tribute to Gareth. The tournament will be played on Saturday, June 29, poignantly on the one-year anniversary of Gareth's death. Alongside the football tournament, the event will also host a barbeque, auction, live entertainment and refreshments for all attendees to enjoy.

A donation has been offered from the Commissioner to support this event and pay tribute to a well-liked and highly respected officer who served in Dyfed Police force for 21 years.

Recommendation: It is recommended that a contribution of £500 is given to support this event from the Sale of Found Property budget.
